DAINTY EMBROIDERY
IN MANY FABRICS
INCLUDED IN SALE

It has been the custom for several years at The Laborer-Gelman Co. to hold an embroidery sale, usually in the early spring. For at least six months before the event, the proprietors of the store are kept busy preparing for it.

This year the sale started on Wednesday, the fourth of March and it will continue as long as the merchandise lasts. That the women of Bridgeport appreciate these sales and remember the splendid values which they have received in previous years, was evidenced by the great amount of embroidery sold on the opening day which far surpassed the expectations of the proprietors.

Because of the rush on Wednesday it was necessary to replenish the stock on Thursday, (in order to carry on the sale as advertised.)

All kinds of flouncings, edgings, gallons, insertions, and correct covering embroideries are included in the sale. The prices asked are in many cases but one quarter of the actual value. The store is continually filled with ladies who are taking advantage of the bargains offered to lay in a stock of embroidery for their summer dresses and waists, etc. Many of the embroideries are exclusive in design and there are thousands of patterns of which no two alike.

There are two sales each year, the January sale and the anniversary sale in August, which involve the entire store, every department being included in the cut of prices. From time to time between these there are the different department sales as the inclusive embroidery sale now in progress.

The women of Bridgeport realizing the importance of these sales, are carefully setting aside the dates in their note-books as "Bargain days at Laborer & Gelman's" which is a conclusive statement for them.

ARRESTS COMING TO DERBY MEN AFTER HOTEL EXPOSURE

Several Arraigned in City Court Today As Result of Disorderly Happenings.

(Special to The Farmer.)

Derby, March 6.—The Birmingham hotel cases which came up in the city court today, will be followed by a number of arrests of men in this and neighboring cities, according to the statements of the city officials who have been busy gathering evidence.

This morning William Baender, proprietor, was remanded in jail of $150 for a further hearing, and the cases of Mary Shortell of 234 Derby avenue and of Tony Salvate were continued, the former being in the custody of her brother, the latter in jail of $50. Charles and Joseph Kilgus, beard, alleged frequenters, were fined $10 and costs, and Richard Lynch was sentenced to jail for 30 days and taxed the costs of prosecution. Judge Peck presided, and John Larkin prosecuted.

The arrests of all the accused were made last night on warrants issued by Mr. Larkin to whom complaints have been made of the nature of the hotel.
The conditions at the hotel have grown to be such, according to the complaint, that the townfolk have come to regard it as an eyesore. The rooming covering the incident of Tuesday night is said to involve a number of other men, but no other women.

THREE PETTY BURGLARIES

Key workers visited Dr. Schaevel's drug store at 1190 Pembroke street last night and took candy and a small amount of change. A woman was found in the store waiting to become a customer when opening time came this morning. She supposed that the clerk in charge was either in a rear room or had stepped out for a moment.

Rosa Ragones' cobbler shop at 79 Clarence street, was entered, last night, and three pairs of men's shoes and one of boys' shoes taken.

A window was broken in the Brill drug store at 1123 Stratford avenue, last night, but nothing was taken.

An anti-tipping bill was introduced in the New York Legislature. It makes it a misdemeanor for anyone to accept, promise, offer, or receive a tip.

SENATOR WORKS DECLARES INTERVENTION INEVITABLE

California Republican Scores Admini- stration For Failing To Cope With Difficulties In Mex- ican Affairs

Washington, March 6.—Predicting that the Mexican situation is "a matter with which the United States will be forced to deal in some decisive way and that very soon," Senator Works (Rep.) of California, sharply criticized the Mexican policy of the administration today in a speech in the Senate.
"We may be forced yet," he said,
"to intervene in some form in Mexico. If we do it should not be for the aggrandizement of our country, the acquisition of territory or any other advantage to us but in the interest of the Mexican people and others resident there, the restoration of peace and order and the establishment of a stable government for our sister republic."

To speak of the relations of the United States with Mexico, Senator Works asserted, was an unpleasant task.

DARK PAGE IN HISTORY.

"It is a dark page in our history," he continued, "unless the American people shall have lost all virility, courage and patriotism, it will be read, in the years to come, with sorrow and shame. For three long years American citizens have been murdered, their wives and daughters outraged, their homes pillaged and their property destroyed and this administration has done nothing more than enter occasional mild protests and subsistive appeals."

"And to whom?
"To Huerta, whose government we had refused to recognize and who, according to our view, had no power nor authority to act. To Villa, not recognized as a belligerent; not even a soldier but a brigand and murderer of innocent people. To Carranza, equally without authority. What had we to expect from protests and appeals made to such as these?"

Senator Works outlined the events in the history of Mexico leading up to the present difficulties and the refusal of this government to recognize Huerta after the assassination of Madero "doubtless, who succeeded him, or with his knowledge and connivance." After the withdrawal of Ambassador Wilson from Mexico, Senator Works declared, referring to the sending of John Lind to Mexico City, there "commenced a series of conduct wholly unknown to diplomacy and so absurd as to make us ridiculous at home and abroad."

DEMANDS UNFORTUNATE.

The demand of the President in his message to Huerta that there should be an armistice could not have been complied with, the Senator continued.

Rome—The right Rev. John J.
Lawler, Auxiliary Bishop of St. Paul, Minnesota, was received by the Pope.
His Holiness spoke lengthily about the affairs of the archdiocese.

MOTHER! GIVE CROSS, SICK CHILD ONLY "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS"

If peevish, feverish, tongue coated, give "Fruit laxative" at once.

No matter what ails your child a laxative should be the first treatment given.
"Look at the tongue, mother! If coated it is a sure sign your 'little one's' stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once." When cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, system full of cold, throat sore, or if feverish, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in just a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, and the demand that security be given for a free election in Mexico was impossible of fulfillment because of the ignorance of the Mexican masses.

Such an election, he declared, probably would have brought about the election of a bullfighter for President.

"Naturally, Huerta did not consider those proposals," continued the Senator, "what else could have been expected? His refusal put our government in a most unfortunate position.
It could not enforce its demand. It might go to war but the refusal to comply with the demands could furnish no justification for declaring war because we had no right to make them."

"So we had to submit tamely to the position of Huerta, bear the derision and sneers of the Mexican people and the indignant smiles of all the nations of the world. And, sir, whatever may be said of Huerta in other respects—and I have no disposition to defend him—he did bear himself with courage, wisdom and moderation in this whole matter."

"At last a prominent British subject was brutally murdered by Villa or his henchmen. Public indignation ran high. The people were aroused but the state department maintained its usual degree of composure."

DUTY TO OTHERS.

"I do not know why the murder of a citizen of Great Britain should have created more feeling than the assassination of hundreds of our own people, except that we have assumed to be the protector of the citizens and subjects of all other nations and insist that such nations should leave this duty and responsibility to us.
Therefore it involves the question of our good faith toward other nations and our ability to keep our word."

"This case was one to put to our good faith and our courage to the test.
The poor widow asked for the body of her dead husband buried on Mexican soil. What did our government do to secure this right? It humbly petitioned Villa, his murderer, to allow the remains to be removed. The state government spent days in trying to find out whether this man was shot by Villa or put to death by order of a drumhead courtmartial called out by a soldier, not by a belligerent but by a brigand and professional murderer."

"What should the government have done in the case?
"It should have done for one of its own citizens—sent our soldiers into Mexico and brought out the body."

London—The Home Rule bill was introduced again in the House of Commons, and was read a first time amid prolonged Ministerial and Nationalist cheers.
